

DOG AND CRANBERRY LAKES ASSOCIATION NATIVE PLANT SALE

Beautiful native plants are available for purchase through Native Plant Nurseries 10 different species in 4" pots
$5 per plant for members and $6 for non-members.

For more information and photos about each plant click on the Latin names below.
We suggest planting in multiples of three of the same plant for a strong presence in the garden.

To place an order please email nativeplants@dogandcranberrylakes.ca with your name and number of each species you would like. You'll receive a confirmation email and then we'll request an e transfer payment for your order to: dogandcranberrylakes@gmail.com

PLEASE PLACE YOUR ORDERS BY Friday May 19th
PICK UP DATE: Sunday May 28th in Battersea

Lance-leaf coreopsis (Coreopsis lanceolata)

Pollinator magnet

Light Requirement: Sun , Part Shade, Shade

Soil Moisture: Dry, drought tolerant

Soil Description: Sandy, gravelly soils. Sandy, Sandy Loam, Medium Loam, Clay Loam, Clay, Acid-based, Calcareous

Bloom time: throughout summer

Yellow giant hyssop (Agastache nepetoides)

Pollinator magnet

Can grow up to 6 feet tall

Water Use: Medium

Light Requirement: Sun , Part Shade

Bloom time: late summer

Canada Anemone (anemone canadensis)

Excellent shoreline plant

Light Requirement: Part Shade, Shade

Soil Moisture: Moist

Soil Description: Moderately moist, sandy soils.

Bloom Time: April - August

Nodding wild onion (Allium cernuum)

Attracts hairstreak butterfly, other pollinators and hummingbirds

Light Requirement: Full to partial sun

Soil Moisture: Dry to medium

Soil Description: Humus-rich, neutral to alkaline soils.

Bloom time: summer

Pearly everlasting (Anaphalis margaritacea)

Host to the Painted Lady butterfly and Skippers

Light Requirement: Sun, Part Shade

Soil Moisture: Medium to Dry

Drought Tolerance: High

Soil Description: Sandy or gravelly soils, but will grow in other soils

Bloom time: summer

Swamp milkweed (Asclepias incarnate)

Host to Monarch and Queen butterflies

Light Requirement: Sun, Part Shade

Soil Moisture: Moist , Wet

Soil Description: Rich, wet, very muddy to average garden moisture. Prefers neutral to slightly acidic soil but will tolerate heavy clay.

Bloom time: summer

Great blue lobelia (Lobelia siphilitica)

Excellent shoreline plant, attracts pollinators

Light Requirement: Sun, Part Shade , Shade

Soil Moisture: Moist , Wet

Drought Tolerance: Low

Soil Description: Clay, Loam, Sand

Bloom time: late summer

Golden Alexander (Zizia aurea)

Host to the Black Swallowtail

Light Requirement: Sun, Part Shade

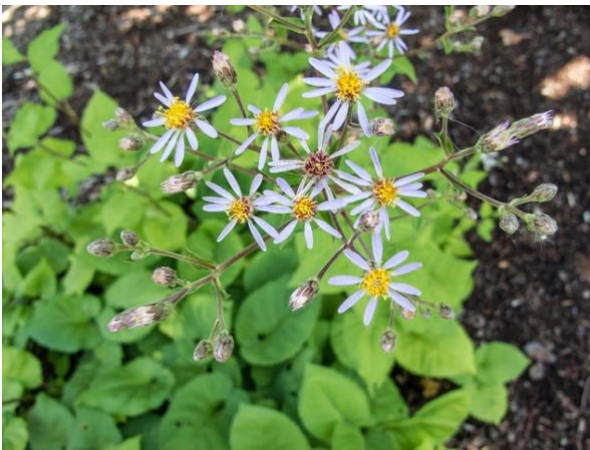

Soil Moisture: Medium to moist

Soil Description: Moist, sandy or sandy-clay soils

Bloom time: late spring

Large leaved aster (Eurybia macrophylla)

The foliage of this species is showier than the flowers.

Light Requirement: Sun, Part Shade, Shade

Soil Moisture: Dry to Moist

Bloom Time: July - October

Turtlehead (Chelone glabra)

Host to the Baltimore Checkerspot butterfly

Attracts other pollinators

Light Requirement: Sun, Part Shade, Shade

Soil Moisture: Moist, Wet to Medium

Soil Description: Light, rich, wet to moist soils.

Bloom time: summer

*photo credits: www.wildflower.org; www.americanmeadows.org;
www.pondinformer.com; www.bugguide.net